Cargills Foundation commences community meals programme

The Cargills Foundation together with the Maldives Community Education and Community Meals programme has commenced in collaboration with the Maldives Community Education Services (MCES). We aim to provide a nutritious meal to underprivileged communities in urban areas every week from Monday to Friday. The meals are prepared at the LTCC premises.

As a time when many people get stuck in urban areas, struggle to find their families due to the high cost of fuel and children suffer from malnutrition, Cargills remains committed to supporting communities in need by implementing the Cargills' programme.

The project commences with providing lunch packs and will eventually scale up to a one-lunch-perk-a-day
